

The Boy is Father to the Man

Old sayings like this are fraught with meaning. And what will aid the expectant mother in conserving her health, her strength, her mental repose and the absence of venereal taints is a subject of vast moment. Among the recognized helps is a splendid remedy known as "Mother's Friend." Applied to the muscles it sinks in deeply to make them firm and pliant, it thus lifts the strain on ligaments that produce pain, it lightens the burden on the nervous system, induces calm, restful nights of health-giving sleep and makes the days sunny and happy. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" of any druggist and you will then realize why it has been considered true to its name in our best homes through three generations. It is perfectly harmless but so effective that once used it is recommended to all expectant mothers by those who went through the ordeal with surprising ease. By writing to Bradford Regulator Co., 412 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., you can have a free copy of a wonderful story book that unfolds these things which all expectant mothers delight to read. FOR BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, COUGHS AND COLDS

Make the Best Remedy at Home—128 Teaspoonsful for 50c.

If everything was sold in as liberal a manner as Bisbee Drug Co. are selling Schiffmann's New Cough-Expectorant, absolutely no cause for complaint or dissatisfaction could possibly arise from anyone. These druggists say—"Buy a bottle of this remedy and try it for Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Severe Cough, Croup or any Bronchial Affection, and we will return your money, just as we do with Schiffmann's famous Asthma-remedy, if it does not give satisfaction, or if not found the best remedy ever used for any of these complaints." Why not take advantage of this guarantee and try this medicine, and get your money back, rather than buying another purely on the exaggerated claims of its manufacturer or on the strength of testimonials from others and run the chance of getting something worthless and also wasting your money?

FOREIGN SITUATION DOMINATES FEVERISH AND SHORT MARKET

All Values on the List Are Shaded Several Points. Insistent Selling by Shorts Aid in the Decline.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The foreign situation cast a shadow over a very feverish market. Liquidation was insistent. Short interests accelerated the decline by a resumption of their recent aggressive tactics. Shares of the war groups and other specialties which are wont to follow the lead of these issues reported extreme losses of from three to six points, while seasoned or investment shares yielded from two to three. The market improved in the final hour.

Another unsettling feature was the renewed heavy selling of Anglo-French bonds. Keweenaw furnished almost the sole element of strength. Total sales were $95,000 shares.

Bonds in general were disposed of in shade. The concessions, mostly, were nominal. Total sales $4,290,000.

BOSTON, Feb. 28.—The security market reflects the uncertainty existing. There is no question but at the moment that technical position of the market is stronger because there has been considerable forced sales of speculative accounts. At the same time there is no disposition to start a sustained upward movement. It would seem to be a time for unusual conservatism and caution. We must remember that values do not count as they would in normal times. The market will be subject to all kinds of disturbances and restraints so long as the war lasts. Many stop loss orders were uncovered today all stocks sold off sharply but a rally set in during the last hour carrying prices up a few points. These drives should be taken advantage of to make purchases of the coppers.

MARY PICKFORD AT THE ROYAL THEATRE

Robert Mantell Makes Hit in Fox Feature, "A Girl From Yesterday."

Crowded houses at all performances at the Royal theatre on Sunday bore witness to the attraction of Robert Mantell, in the forceful drama, "The Unfaithful Wife." With Mr. Mantell as the main figure in the story, the two other prominent parts were brilliantly interpreted by Genevieve Hammer and Stuart Holmes, the play created a profound impression on all who saw it.

From the sternest tragedy the Royal program veered on Monday to the most rollicking farce, and it is safe to say that Miss Vivian Martin and her company in "Overnight" were the cause of more hearty laughter than is usually crowded into one evening.

Today and tomorrow the most popular film heroine in the world will

"BOUGHT & PAID FOR" WILL OPEN DRAMATIC SEASON AT CENTRAL THEATRE NEXT MONDAY

The opening attraction at the Central Theatre will be George Broadhurst's vital drama, "Bought and Paid For." In making their initial appearance in this city the Ed. Redmond company have selected one of the most absorbing dramas ever written and the fame gained by the play when originally presented in New York and later in the larger cities is known to every theatregoer.

The beauty of "Bought and Paid For" and its strong appeal to the theatre-goer is its simplicity of plot. The series of incidents that go to make up the story are consistent and not apart from happenings that might occur in daily life.

The story centers about Virginia Chaire, a girl of beauty and intellect, who ekes an existence as a telephone operator in a city hotel, through force of circumstances. She meets, while at work, Robert Stafford, a man who has risen from poverty by his own efforts to a powerful factor in the financial world.

To win such a man would ordinarily be considered a stroke of good fortune for any girl in similar circumstances, but in Virginia's case the great inter-rogation is, should she have married a man she did not feel she deeply loved? Robert bestows upon her all that money can buy, but with the taking of a wife and the cozy home that he has longed for while battling for

THE VALUE OF TRUTH

Truth in business is just as important as truth in every-day life; truth creates confidence, establishes good-will and builds a reliability that will not be wrecked by the storms of competition.

Through three generations people have learned to place reliance on the advertised words of Scott's Emulsion, because they are unvarnished, unexaggerated truths about a household remedy of real and actual worth.

The popularity of Scott's Emulsion is increasing as intelligence advances, because in these days of adulterations it continues to guarantee pure cod liver oil medicinally perfected with glycerine and hypophosphites to build strength, improve the blood and strengthen the lungs. It is free from alcohol or opiates—a wholesome food-tonic, truthfully advertised.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-23

again delight Royal patrons, as for two days Mary Pickford is billed to appear in "A Girl of Yesterday," and her many admirers will have the chance to see her in what now appears to us as the quaint garb of a couple of generations ago.

For the remainder of the week the program of this theatre keeps up to the high standard it has so long maintained. Miss Laura Crewes of international reputation will be seen on Thursday and Friday in "Blackbird," one of the successes of the season, and on Saturday and Sunday will appear another Fox feature, "Her Mother's Secret," with Ralph Kellard and Dorothy Green.

ARE MEDICINES LIQUORS?

A certain class of prejudiced and jealous doctors call patent medicines only alcoholic beverages. They will tell you that such and such a medicine contains as much alcohol as a glass of beer or a certain quantity of whiskey; but they do not mention that the beer or whiskey is swallowed at one draught, while only a small quantity of the medicine is taken at one dose. At the same time they will use alcohol quite as freely and many in four or five times as great proportions in their own prescriptions.

Such standard remedies as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound use barely enough alcohol to preserve the root and herb extracts, too little to have injurious effects; and the medicine can be had, if desired, in a non-alcoholic form.
